

a. Jot down ideas to describe the different parts of this city view:

1. A storm is brewing.
2. Buildings standing high/mighty in the distance.
3. Streets full of the afternoon crowds.
4. A bridge where people travel across.

The storm was brewing in the near distance.....
Skyscrapers towering in the back.....
Thunder and lightning let out a loud crack.
The ~~busy~~ city disappeared as if the hinderance
Being left outside was a real coincidence.....
Plans were cancelled for an afternoon snack.....
The thunder smuck<sup>POOT</sup> old man John's shack.....
Although this isn't of much significance.....
