

Monday 26th June

Review Writing

Fl

The Holiday Resort that has it all.

Is your looking to go a holiday alone or with friends and family, Crystal Flora Hotel is perfect for you. Imagine being lay on a sunbed, stressfree knowing that no one will try to bother you whilst you enjoy the refreshing mist jumping from the mediterranean sea. Well dont be wasting anymore time and join the adventure to the hotel.

The Crystal Flora Hotel is located along the coast of Ikdiki, Turkey. and is about a 1 hour drive from the closest airport. As you arrive, you will be greeted with a simple map of the complex. This marble looking map contains key points of information and places within the hotel. If you come here with younger family members, it is the perfect place for yourself and others to come, as there are many interesting activities that take place throughout the day. There are many bars and restaurants that contain different things such as a gift bar, burger bar, pool bar and many more. Each bar also contains drink machines where you can get as many of the cold, refreshing drinks as you would like because at Crystal Flora, its all inclusive.

Despite all the good, drinks and activities, there are also amazing staff members and an amazing entertainment crew that make you feel like your stay was the most cherishable memories that you could have. The entertainment crew perform 4 times per week at night on an outdoor stage so you can enjoy the thrilling acts that they do but so your not too warm whilst watching it. The stage that is provided for you could not be any better than they already are. They do constant checks to see how your doing but if they see that your peacefully relaxing, they will leave you alone. but at the same time, you will get persuaded into doing indoor, outdoor and even pool and sea activities with them.

With over hundreds of thousands of people going here every 3 year, there will always be space for you to do something. For example the rooms are spacious and come in 3 options depending on how many people are with you. As your going into your room, you will be astonished with the amount of work and thought that has been put in to make a perfect holiday. After your bags are brought to your room, you will receive a tour of where everything is and a letter with all the information on. The rooms are cleared every morning at 10 am.